NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU. }
HIGH POINT, N. C. Dec. 14 }

There will be a social by the Christion Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church tomorrow night, complimentary to the new members, every body cordially invited.

Jim Little has a bird dog that was given away by not less than half a dozen people, and sentenced to death twice, he was so worthless. Jim has trained the dog, and has refused $150 for him.

We learn that one of our paper carriers frightened a lady a few nights ago by ringing the door bell and leaving before she came to the door. We cannot blame the little carrier for leaving, for he cannot always wait until some one comes to the door, then too after a ring, of this kind, you will find the paper at your door.

"And God said, Let there be light; and there was light." Gen., I:3. Is it not a pity that certain parties here don't say, "Let there be light." If so there would be light.

We were asked this morning by a gentleman if there was a first class gunsmith in Greensboro. We could not give him answer.

Clyde Curlee, who has, since the Second regiment was mustered out, been in Raleigh helping to straighten up matters, has returned home.

Miss Etta Dorsett, of Bethany, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. P. H. Johnson.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY AND PARTY

Passed Last Night in The Finest Train in The World.

The special train bearing President McKinley and party to the Atlanta Peace Jubilee, passed through Greensboro at 10:30 o'clock last night. Owing to the lateness of the hour and the expectation that the president would be asleep only one hundred people were at the depot. When the train reached here the president had just finished supper and was enjoying a cigar in the smoker of the "Campania," a car just out of the Pullman shops and said to be the most extravagantly furnished and equipped car in the world. The train was composed of six coaches, the most elegant ever constructed by the Pullman company. The cabinet members and their ladies rode in the compartment car "Columbia." Another compartment car was occupied exclusively by invited guests, among whom was the son of Secretary Hay. A party of newspaper men, invited by the president, occupied a Pullman arranged specially for their comfort. A special telegraph operator and a number of messengers and stenographers were with the train.

Don't Drive So Fast.

Fast, reckless driving is becoming more and more frequent on our streets every day. There is a law against fast driving within the city limits, but an example has to be made of some one occasionally, to keep the ordinance in the minds of the people. Yesterday afternoon a middle-aged boozy looking countryman set out to paint the town red and drove up and down South Elm at a rate that would have made Star Pointer turn green with envy. When Officers Jeffries and Scott held him up he pleaded ignorance and asked that he be allowed to go home, promising not to skip over the cobble stones at such a rate again.

Fast driving on a crowded street is not only dangerous to the citizens but to the driver and his horse as well and some "innocent" offender may have to be pulled up before the mayor again if speed is not better regulated on our streets.

A Small Fire This Morning.

A small fire, at Mrs. Payne's boarding house, corner Church and North Davie streets, called the firemen out at 9 o'clock this morning. The firemen never responded more quickly, and what might have caused the destruction of one of the largest frame buildings in the city was nipped in the bud, being put out with a chemical fire extinguisher. The damage was slight, none at all being done by the fire but by the firemen in their search for the blaze.

Recovered His Clothes.

Officer Jordan worked unusually hard this morning, but there was more than a reputation at stake. Some one stole his clothes from his wash woman and they had to be recovered. The night policeman caught one of the thieves last night and recovered part of the goods and Officers Jordan and Scott captured the other this morning. Both the theives were females of the colored persuasion. The clothes were found in their possession and identified by Mr. Jordan.

MR. M'KINLEY IN ATLANTA.

Rode Half a Block to the Kimball House,

THE REST OF THE PARTY WALKED.

General Wheeler and His Daughter Held an Informal Reception In the Elegant Parlor.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Atlanta, Dec. 14—The train bearing the presidential party arrived in this city, to attend the peace jubilee at eight o'clock this morning. The president and Mrs. McKinley breakfasted in the dining car. At Gainesville, about two hundred persons were assembled. From there to Atlanta there was an occasional cheer, but nothing in the nature of a demonstration.

All the available space about the depot was crowded with an immense gathering of people to greet the president, who took a carriage and rode to the Kimball House, only half a block away. The rest of the party walked the short distance. General Wheeler and his daughter held an informal reception in the elegant hotel parlor.

The programme arranged for today allowed the travelers to rest in advance of the fatigues of the occasion by being entertained after breakfast until noon by the jubilee committee. A reception is planned by the governor and the general assembly at the capitol. The rest of the program provides for a public reception, at the capitol at two o'clock, review of floral parade at three, return to the Kimball House for dinner at six, and a reception by the capitol city club, at nine. The president has not decided if he will make any remarks except of an informal nature.

BLACKWELL'S FACTORY SOLD.

It Has Been Absorbed by The Union Tobacco Company.

Durham, Dec. 13—The factory of the Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Company, in this city, has been sold to the Union Tobacco Company, of New York. Col. J. S. Carr is in New York today and has consummated the deal, which goes into effect at once. I learn that there will be no change in the management or in the local force here. Everything connected with the Durham branch will be under Col. Carr's supervision, as heretofore.

The Union Tobacco Company starts out with a capital stock of $10,000,000, with $5,000,000 paid in. W. H. Butler, who, until recently, was a vice president of the American Tobacco Company, is president of the new organization. The place of vice president has been left open. It is thought and hoped by many persons that Col. J. S. Carr will be elected to this place. The principal purchasers of the Bull factory are residents of New York and Philadelphia. The terms of the purchase and the other details have not been made known as yet.—Special to Charlotte Observer.

Looking Up the Flock.

Rev. P. D. Risinger, of the Lutheran church, is in the city, and will conduct services next Sunday at 11 a. m. in Brockmann School of Music Hall. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Mr. Risinger's work is under the auspices of the United Lutheran Synod, South. He may be found by calling on Mr. Jos. J. Stone at 114 West Market street. He invites all interested to call on him or let him know where he may find them. We hope that his visit may be the means of putting on foot a movement to build a church of that denomination in Greensboro.

The Vagabond.

A much smaller crowd than on the previous night saw "The Vagabond" played by the Peruchi-Beldeni company at the Academy of Music last night. Notwithstanding the fact the play was not a new one here, it was thoroughly enjoyed It was by far the best presentation of it ever seen here. The specialties last night were rich, and kept the audience in an uproar of laughter. Tonight "A Georgia Cracker" will be played. It is a farce-comedy, and if you want a good hearty laugh, go out tonight.

Runaway.

Mr. H. S. Patterson's horse ran away on East Gaston street this afternoon. Soon after turning into North Davie the wagon was dashed against the curbing and the shafts and one wheel of the was demolished and the harness torn up. The driver was thrown out but escaped injury except a bruise on the hip.

When you ask for De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve don't accept a counterfeit or imitation. There are more cases of Piles being cured by this, than all others combined. Howard Gardner.

COL. BRYAN'S VIEWS.

An Extract From An Interview With Him Yesterday.

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 13—Colonel Wm. J. Bryan, upon leaving his command, the Third Nebraska Regiment, today, gave the following interview:

"My reason for leaving the army was set forth in my letter to the Adjutant General tendering my resignation. Now that the treaty of peace has been concluded, I believe that I can be more useful to my country as a civilian than as a soldier."

Colonel Bryan then proceeded to the discussion of public questions, saying: "The people of the United States having rescued Cuba from foreign control, may now resume the discussion of the domestic problems which confront this nation, and to the consideration of the new questions arising out of the war.

"I may be in error, but in my judgment our nation is in greater danger just now than Cuba. Our people defended Cuba against foreign arms; now they must defend themselves and their country against a foreign idea—the colonial idea of European nations. Heretofore greed has perverted the government and used its instrumental interferences for private gains; but now the very foundation principles of our government are assaulted.

"The imperialistic idea is directly antagonistic to the idea and ideals which have been cherished by the American people since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Our nation must give up her intention of entering upon a colonial policy (such as is now pursued by European countries), or it must abandon the doctrine that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the government.

"We may believe that governments come up from the people or we may believe that governments come down to the people from those who possess the heaviest cannons and the largest ships, but we cannot advocate both doctrines.

"To borrow a Bible quotation, 'a house divided against itself cannot stand;' paraphrasing Lincoln's declaration, I may add that this nation cannot endure half republic and half colony—half free and half vassal. Our form of government, our traditions, our present interests and our future welfare all forbid our entering upon a career of conquest.

"Jefferson has been quoted in support of imperialism, but our opponents must distinguish between imperialism and expansion; they must also distinguish between expansion in the Western Hemisphere and an expansion that involves us in the quarrels of Europe and the Orient. They must still further distinguish between expansion which secures contiguous territory for future settlement and expansion which secures us alien races for future subjugation.

"Jefferson favored the annexation of necessary contiguous territory on the North American continent, but he was opposed to wars of conquest and expressly condemned the acquiring of remote territory."

GAS TANK EXPLOSION.

Scene of Ruin and Destruction in New York.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Dec. 14—Two hundred laborers are working in the ruins of the gas tank explosion. At noon today those known to be dead are John Gray, Andrew Wendth, Pius Baum, Peter Conlin, and the missing are James Buckner, George Drenner, Gustave Wencke. A score or more are injured all of whom are doing well today.

Mr. Lutz, living near the scene of the explosion went to her cellar this morning to ascertain the damage by the flood of water from under the tank and saw the body of a man floating about. The accident was due to the inability of the large gas holder to stand the necessary test to which it was put before injecting gas. The water was about 27 feet above the street level when the tank exploded, and rushed out like a bursting dam, carrying everything before it.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE

Twenty-Ninth Annual Meeting in Washington.

A CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

Several Prominent Southern Men in Washing to Attend a Meeting of Railroad Men.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 14—The National Board of Trade assembled for its annual meeting yesterday. The sessions of the board are nearly always held in Washington city, and this is the twenty-ninth annual meeting of the organization. Monday throughout the day and night the trains from every section of the country, reaching the city, had among their passengers members who are in attendance. There are many prominent business men from the South here to attend the meeting, being delegates from North, and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia and even Florida.

The sessions, as for a number of years past are being held at the Shoreham hotel.

Among North Carolinians in attendance are Hon. Claudius Dockery and Harry Shaw, of Charlotte:

Among other prominent delegates are President John W. Gates, of the Illinois Steel Company, Governor Tanner, of Illinois, Senator Cullom, of Illinois, Mason Z. R. Carter, President of the Chicago board of trade, Hon. T. N. Jameson, ex-chairman of the state republican committee of Illinois, Hon. F. G. du Bignon, of Atlanta Georgia, J. W. Worthington, of Birmigham Alabama, E. Zimmerman, of Cincinnati, E. H. Myers, of New York and Col. T. L. Elwood, of Chicago.

Among the prominent southern delegates in addition to those named, is former Representative Mayer, of Louisiana. The ex-congressman is well remembered in Washington, and has many friends who formed his acquaintance while he was in congress. He was yesterday on the floor of the house, which was the first time in many years, and received a hearty welcome from his former colleagues.

Several prominent southerners are in Washington also for the purpose of attending a meeting of railroad men which has convened in this city. Among those in attendance is Mr. J. R. Parrott, of Florida. Mr. Parrott is in favor of the early passage by the senate of the anti-scalping bill which is pending, having passed the house of representatives last week. He is also in favor of the passage of the Nicaraguan canal bill. In speaking on the subject last night he said that the construction of the canal as proposed by the Morgan bill would be a great benefit to the south.

Yesterday morning the house committee on Elections, No. 3, by a call of the chairman, General Walker, who has just returned to the city, held a session for the purpose of considering what course of action is best to be taken in the contested election case of Browne against Swanson. General Walker is in favor of proceeding to the consideration of the case as soon as possible, and would like to get the case off the calendar of the house before the Christmas holidays. There is considerable difference among the members of the elections committee, some of them favoring the taking up of the case before the holidays, others favoring taking up the case, but not until after the first of the new year, while other members of the committee are opposed to the consideration of the case by the house at all, believing that Mr. Swanson has a clear and indisputable title to the seat.

There are three reports in the case, one favoring Mr. Browne, which, although the report of the committee is signed by a minority of the committee, one in favor of Swanson and another declaring the seat vacant.

Senator Pritchard stated last night that he had nothing to say in regard to his intentions in the matter of the recent riots in North Carolina. The Senator was at the White House, as reported last night, and it is said that he talked with the president upon the subject.

The senator says that there are no grounds for the impeachment of Governor Russell, and that he will remain as chief executive of the state until the expiration of his term of office.

A delegation of Richmond, Virginia, busines men will have a hearing this morning before the house committee on rivers and harbors, for the purpose of urging the extension of the twenty-two foot channel of the James river extended as far as the city.

THE SHIPP MONUMENT.

Let The Ball Start in Earnest in Greensboro.

Some months ago the Charlotte Observer appointed Messrs. Thomas Settle, R. R. King and the editor of this paper to receive subscriptions to the Shipp monument fund. Owing to the intense excitement attending the campaign the matter was deferred. Since the election others matters have so engrossed the minds of the committee that it has been overlooked. Our neighbor cities have done handsomely and Greensboro should respond liberally.

Mr. A. W. McAlister has, through a genuine patriotic spirit, joined in the effort to honor the memory of the fallen hero. He reported the following yesterday:

J. M. Walker	1.00

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 13, 1898.

And now the news comes from Washington that Senator Pritchard will introduce no resolutions looking to the investigation of the "recent race troubles" in the South. He says "it is not a matter in which the senate is concerned." Pity for the Senator, and his party, that he didn't use as much common sense when he talked of having troops sent down here to make us cast our votes right. But that's the senator's business.

It is hard for the Spaniards to be good. The remnant of Spanish officers in Cuba, it is said, hatched out a fantastic scheme to sell all the railroads on the island to a syndicate and bind the Cuban government to the paym en of subsidies to them for a period of 99 years. President McKinley, however, got wind of the project and telegraphed General Wade, who is president of the Cuban commission, to nip the thing in the bud. Prompt action in the matter may be the means of avoiding subsequent international complications, for in the event the sale should take place and French or German people become purchasers, there would eventually be trouble.

Now the startling announcement is made that Col. Jule Carr's big concern, the Bull Factory in Durham has become a partner in a trust! Who would have thought it? The news first reached us last night through the Durham Sun, which says it gives the news straight, and from a reliable source. This morning the papers are full of it. Editor Furman, of the Morning Post, sees the coming battle between the American Tobacco company and the new concern, the Union Tobacco company, and philosophizes as follows:

If these two trusts, organized, it is understood, in opposition to each other, or rather, the new one being organized to fight the old one, get down to business in real earnest, and stick to it, those of us who smoke, and those farmers who can escape the watchful eyes of some of our esteemed Methodist preachers and raise the weed, will have no cause to complain, for when our farmers can get high prices for their crops and we smokers can get our goods cheap, tobacco trusts will lose their terrors, and even the festive little cigarette will become a public benefactor.

To the Pen.

One of the prisoners was a little negro boy, 8 years of age, who was sentenced to five years in the pen for burning a little girl to death.

Sheriff Gilmer, of Guilford, left this morning for Raleigh carrying to the pen Macom Smitherman, sentenced for thirty years for murder in the second degree, and Richard Cohen, who gets ten years for house breaking.

After Many Days

Opening of a Chestnut Burr and several other popular writings are the production of a well known and able author.

His success has come from the solid, impregnable foundation upon which he bases his stories.

The success of the demand created for our $10 all wool worsted suit has the same broad foundation.

A cloth made of pure straight wool, fast dye color, lined with splendid quality satin, satin piped seams, sewed with fast dye silk, Cut to Fit, coustitutes a suit that any man is well dressed when he dons it.

The Advocate Commission.

As announced in this paper yesterday the two commissions appointed by the two conferences in this state, on the North Carolina Christian Advocate question, met at West Market Street church last night. A harmonious session was held, and the matter was carefully and prayerfully discussed.

The utmost good feeling prevailed throughout the conference, but there was no arrangement perfected for one paper to be the organ of both conferences. In fact the committee from the North Carolina conference was not empowered to make a deal of that kind. The publishing committee will meet later and determine upon the plans for the publication of the new paper.

Music may have charms to soothe the savage, but it is the popular airs that give him that tired feeling.

There is nothing, however, that will make a man so downright tired as to tackle a big Christmas turkey with a carving knife that is dull enough to suggest that the cook uses it all the rest of the year in splitting kindling wood. When you have bought your Christmas turkey, let your next move be to Odell's, where they are selling Carvers that are fine, Carvers that are medium, Carvers that are cheap, but all of good material, warranted to cut.
